

Latimer Trust Grant Application Form

The Latimer Trust invites applications for grants, anticipating making no more than three grants of up to £2,000 each year, for one year only.

The main purpose of the Latimer Trust is to provide resource material for the church. Priority will be given to candidates whose proposal has direct relevance to the needs of the church today. The work may form part of a PhD, dissertation or sabbatical project: the aim of the Latimer Trust is to facilitate access to this work by publication, whether as a Latimer Study, articles in journals etc.

The area of study should be in the fields of Christian Doctrine and/or Historical Theology with an emphasis on the practical benefits of the research for today's church.

Applicants must adhere to the Doctrinal Basis of the Latimer Trust, which is available on request.

Declaration

1. I agree with the Latimer Trust Basis of Faith
2. I agree that if awarded a grant, I will meet with members of the Latimer Trust from time to time and seek to contribute to the longer-term ministry of the Latimer Trust. As part of the latter, I agree to write at least 1 blog post and 1 review of one of the books in the Latimer collection, within the same year I am given the grant. I also agree that these writings will be done within the guidelines of the statement of faith that I have signed for the Latimer Trust. I hereby accept that the text I submit will be used on social media and the webpage of the Latimer Trust and that the length of these writings should be between 350 and 600 words.
3. I agree that the Latimer Trust can use the personal information given in this form in line with their privacy policy, and for the process of awarding grants
4. I agree to comply with the Latimer Trust's safeguarding policy, and confirm that I do not in any way abuse or mistreat others.
