What we do

The Latimer Trust seeks to provide Biblical Truth for today's Anglican Church.
We do this through publications, grants and research.

Publications - We have a number of different publications that are useful for all aspects and areas of ministry. Our catalogue can be seen or downloaded from our website. Click here to download or enter this path on your browser: latimertrust.org/POD catalogue. The links below the covers will take you to the shop, where you will find all the information about our books, including their price.

We are able to ship worldwide but if in doubt do contact us either via our website or drop us an email on info@latimertrust.org. We will be happy to respond and try to sort out any of your questions.

Grants - Every year we offer research grants to Anglicans. Priority is given to the fields of Christian Doctrine and Historical Theology, with an emphasis on the practical benefits for today's church.

Research - .We support the work of three Research Fellows: Gerald Bray, Andrew Atherstone and Martin Davie.

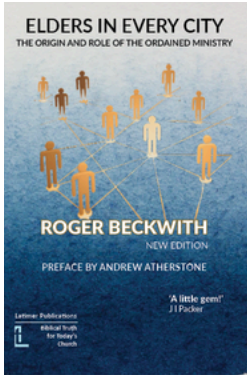

Would you like to support us?

Subscribe to receive our newsletter - We send one letter every month to all our subscribers with the blogs published during that period, some information on new releases, and also a discount voucher for some of our publications. This will also be a good way to pray for us!

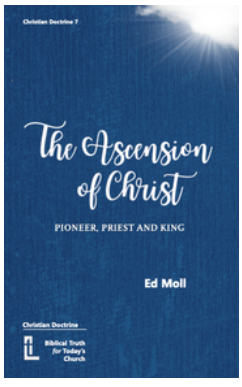

Join our supporters - Please consider helping us to continue resourcing the Anglican church with publications, research and grants. You could do this by:

- Telling others about our publications and grants.
- Sign up to easyfundraising and see your favourite brands donate to us whenever you shop with them.
- Donate directly to us: you could do this from our webpage.
